

Is dental assisting right for me?

If you are a detail oriented, organized, multi-tasker who can work independently and enjoys helping people, explore your options as a dental assistant!

Dental assistants work in a variety of settings and have one of the most flexible and in-demand roles on a dental team. A dental assisting certification takes less than one year to earn with immediate job opportunities available for graduates.

Where can dental assistants work?

Dental private practice • Orthodontics • Dental laboratory • Oral surgery
Pediatric dentistry • Endodontics • Periodontics • Public Health Education

Sponsorships & scholarships:

Employer sponsorships fund education and provide job certainty after graduation.

Scholarships available to fund testing fees

$23.75/hr
Average salary in ND

North Dakota ranks in the top 10 for dental assistant salaries (Rankings provided by DANB)

100%
Job placement rate

60% of ND dentists surveyed plan to hire a dental assistant in the next year

There is a shortage of dental assistants in North Dakota

Fast track to employment

Certification can be obtained in 10 months

Many dental assistants are employed within one year of entering a program

Area dental assisting programs:

North Dakota State College of Science-Wahpeton

More info: bit.ly/NDSCSdental

Minnesota State Community and Technical College-Moorhead

More info: bit.ly/MStatedental

Northwest Technical College-Bemidji

More info: bit.ly/NTCMNdental

➔ Find more resources and sponsorship information at: smilenorthdakota.org/AlliedDentalEducation